In this perfected musical instrument, Mr. Edison has finally solved all the difficulties which have baffled others in the past.

He has eliminated the harshness, the mechanical timbre, the metallic sound. So marvelous-ly life-like is its tone, that, closing the eyes one can scarcely distinguish the reproduction from the original. In Mr. Edison's own words, "Real Music at Last."

UTAH UNIVERSIT' MAKES AWARDS

Right to Wear the Big U. I. Officially Given to Athletes of Institution.

Salt Lake, Dec. 11.—Associate stu-dents of the University of Utah yesterday officially awarded the athletes of the institution the right to wear the block "U." Nearly all of the Crimson heroes were present and participated in the exercises.

Hermon J. Wells, president of the student body, presided. Julian Thom-as, a former A. S. U. U. president, delivered the principal address, and Dr Joseph F. Merrill, chairman of the university athletic council, presented the awards. Coach Norgren came through with a few remarks, and for the first time at a student body meeting this fall was seen to smile. But the most successful speeches were given by Roy McIntyre and Lowell Romney, both of whom were awarded letters for all four major sports 'Hom" particularly proved himself an orator, although he alleged that he had received instructions from one Henry Beal, captain of the basketball team last year. Coach Nelson H. praised the boys and told the audience how hard they had worked. He said that the season had been a successful one and regret ted that the schedule was not arranged better. He hoped earnestly that the students would support the team better next year and that he would have more men out for the

The athletes did not receive their sweaters and other trophies yesterday because they had not arrived from the manufacturer. Officials in charge of the awards state that they will be ready within two weeks.

The athletic council sprang an innevation yesterday. Those who are entitled to the block "U" are allowed to elect a "U" pin instead, which will admit them to all athletic contests on Cummings field free of charge. The awards were:

New York, Dec. 11.-Jack Curley and Tom Jones representing the Buenos Ayres Sporting Club, have added another big bout to the program being arranged for the Argentine city. 'Ted'' Lewis, the English wizard and Millie Ritchie, the former lightweight champion are to meet for the welterweight title.

Lewis challenged Ritchie several weeks ago and posted a $1,000 forfeit. Ritchie agreed to the match but no place for staging the bout could be found. Then the Buenos Ayres Club began seeking a program to be staged in the South American city, it was decided to pull off the Lewis-Ritchie affair there. Other big bouts will probably be lined up for the program,
